Hughes mushrooms are a leading player in the mushroom industry in the UK and Ireland and are a trusted supplier to many of the large UK retailers. With over 54 years of experience, the company operates from three sites, using state of the art facilities, designed and operated to the highest quality standards.

Hughes Group have recently opened a 'world leading' mushroom growing facility on the outskirts of Holme upon Spalding Moor. This leading-edge facility is now looking to grow its team to match the demands of customers.

I hope you have enjoyed a relaxing summer. The children are preparing for their new terms and I'm sure we are all hoping for an Indian Summer to make up for the low temperatures over August.

This time last year I was excited to be working towards greater economic prosperity for the county. I have now been asked to lead on the services for Children and Young People. This includes, safeguarding, children looked after and in the care of the Local Authority, all our East Riding schools, and all youngsters with disabilities and challenges, an important and often challenging role. Across the East Riding there are over 45,000 school pupils and 150 different places of learning. Plenty to keep me busy!

"Operations at this existing waste site have been established by certificate of lawful existing development for the processing of animal by-products and food waste granted 3rd January 2012 (reference 11/00970/CLE/STRAT) and composting of biodegradable waste (reference 12/02509/CLE) granted on appeal 31st July 2013 (ref. APP/E2001/X/13/2193640). (The ERYC refused the application, but the applicant went to appeal and the decision to refuse was overturned. Therefore, since that date the management and enforcement of the site came under the supervision of the EA within the permitted development)

20/00435/CM - Erection of an extension to an existing building, alterations and extensions to increase eaves and ridge height of an existing building and extend it to the North, erection of a bio-filter bed building, installation of replacement cladding to existing buildings, siting of 8 no. storage tanks to replace existing storage tanks, siting of 2 no. tanks for the storage of water and oil respectively, and works to improve surface water drainage including raising the level of existing areas of hard standing and excavation of a flood risk attenuation area - Approved 04.06.2020 with no objections from neighbouring residents and no comments from Holme upon Spalding Moor Parish Council. Existing and proposed site layout plans attached.

20/02206/CM - Installation of a replacement 18m chimney and ducting - 28.09.2020 Again no objections from neighbours and support from Holme upon Spalding Moor Parish Council.

Both were delegated decisions." (The delegation of the decisions was because there were no comments received on the applications other than in support and that the applications are situated within the permitted development of the previously approved site and unlikely to be refused at the time of application or at appeal. The process of appeal can be very costly to the public purse (us as Tax Payers) and should only be defended if reasonable likelihood of success. Information relating to the applications can be accessed via the East Riding Planning Portal - <https://newplanningaccess.eastriding.gov.uk/>)

75th ANNIVERSARY OF THE FORMATION OF BOMBER COMMAND

Everyone welcome

So, what is the link with Holme on Spalding Moor?

Please note that all photographs are copyrighted and cannot be used without prior permission of Ann Dowson.

Number 76 Squadron was a squadron of the Royal Air Force. It was formed during World War I as a home defence fighter squadron and in its second incarnation during World War II flew as a bomber squadron, first as an operational training unit and later as an active bomber squadron. With the end of the war the squadron converted to the role of transport squadron, to be reactivated shortly in the bomber role during the 1950s. From 2007 to 2011, it was a training unit, equipped with the Short Tucano at RAF Linton-on-Ouse.

History

First World War

No. 76 Squadron, RFC was formed at RFC Ripon, Yorkshire for home defence duties on 15 September 1916 in the Yorkshire area, having detachments Copmanthorpe, Helperby and Catterick. It was equipped with Royal Aircraft Factory B.E.2s and B.E.12s, these being replaced by Bristol F.2Bs in 1918. The squadron disbanded at Bramham Moor on 13 June 1919, having seen no action during this part of its service life despite this it is largely seen in the film "Aces High" by Jack Gold.

Second World War

Wellesleys, Hampdens and Ansons

The squadron was next reformed at RAF Finningley on 12 April 1937 from 'B' Flight of No. 7 Squadron, equipped with Vickers Wellesley bombers. These were replaced by Handley Page Hampdens and Avro Ansons in April 1939, the unit moving to RAF Upper Heyford at the outbreak of war. It performed an operational training role until 8 April 1940, when it merged with No. 7 Squadron to form No. 16 Operational Training Unit (OTU).

Halifaxes

No. 76 Squadron Handley Page Halifax B.I L9530 at RAF Middleton St. George, later shot down attacking Magdeburg.

The squadron reformed shortly on 30 April 1940 at RAF West Raynham as a Hampden unit before being disbanded on 2 May 1940. On 1 May 1941, the squadron reformed properly at RAF Linton-on-Ouse as the second Handley Page Halifax bomber squadron, part of the newly created No. 4 Group, RAF Bomber Command. The Squadron moved to RAF Middleton St. George in June 1941, returning to Linton-on-Ouse in July 1942. The squadron moving again, this time to RAF Holme-on-Spalding Moor 16th June 1943 as part of a policy to allow the newly formed Canadian 6 Group to use the better equipped RAF stations that had been built pre-war. The Squadron had a substantial number of Norwegian pilots and aircrew.

From August 1942 to April 1943, No. 76 Squadron was commanded by Wing Commander Leonard Cheshire.

Dakotas

With the rest of No. 4 Group, No. 76 Squadron was transferred to RAF Transport Command in May 1945, re-equipping with Douglas Dakotas, shortly thereafter moving to RAF Broadwell. It moved to India in September the same year, where it was disbanded on 1 September 1946 at Palam Airport by being re-numbered to No. 62 Squadron.

Post-war

On 9 December 1953, the squadron reformed at RAF Wittering, equipped with English Electric Canberra B.2 bombers. The squadron moved in November 1955 to RAF Weston Zoyland, for Operation Grapple. Some of these aircraft were tasked with collecting air samples during the Operation Grapple nuclear trials in 1956/58. The squadron disbanded on 30 December 1960 at RAF Upwood.

Training

The squadron remained dormant until 1 May 2007, when the Short Tucano T.1 Air Navigation Squadron at RAF Linton-on-Ouse was redesignated as No. 76 (Reserve) Squadron. In 2008, Prince William spent three months at Linton learning to fly. No. 76 Squadron continued to train WSOs (Weapons Systems Officers) until December 2010, and was disbanded in May 2011

The previous occupants of the Airfield were the RAAF 458 Squadron who moved onto the newly built airfield in October 1941 they flew Wellington bombers. The squadron was posted to the Middle East in 1942...

The land for the new airfield was requisitioned from the surrounding farms, public footpaths were closed and the laying down of the runways began in 1939.

There are two memorials on the plot by the main gate the 76 squadron and the Australian 458 squadron. Two plaques stand behind the memorials; one dedicated to 'Hank' Iveson Station Commander the other to Squadron Leader Leonard Cheshire VC.

The Memorial window in the church stands above the oak cabinet which houses the book of remembrance to the 76 squadron members who perished in the Second World War, The book is housed in this oak cabinet built by a former member of the squadron George Woods. George also built and donated a matching cabinet which houses the village copy of the Doomsday Book which is kept in the primary school.

The annual memorial service happens each September after a morning service and wreath laying in the church. The veterans and their families move to the Airfield and lay their tributes to their fallen comrades around the memorial. The last post is played and a short service concludes the service. This is usually followed by the fly past 11-30am followed by the service.

Everyone is welcome, this year the service will be held at the airfield on Sunday 12th September. The veterans [who incidentally are now greatly diminished in number] love to meet and greet and show off their medals. My grand children loved to meet the retired flyers and were intrigued by the tiny gold caterpillars proudly worn on the ties of the veterans who had bailed out of their stricken plane. This year is a special year it is 75 years since Bomber Command was formed.

There are still some of the original buildings from the war on site; the hangers still stand proud clear of Skiff Lane. The majority of the runways have been reclaimed back to farming. The dispersal points have also gone.

Things in the village have changed in those 75 years since the bombs were transported from the station a frequently seen spectacle remembered by villages who are now in their 90's. If you know of an elderly person ask them about it.

The Cross Keys is no longer open, but another favourite drinking place was the Blacksmith's Arms, the men laugh when reminded how they pushed the piano onto the High Street and broke it up, maybe it needed tuning. Who knows, they certainly deserved a lighter side to their lives.

The photograph below is of a Bücker Bü 131 Jungmann (freshman, young man) was a German 1930s basic training aircraft which was used by the Luftwaffe during World War II.

The Embraer EMB 312 Tucano - : Toucan; pronunciation) is a low-wing, tandem-seat, single-turboprop, basic trainer with counter-insurgency capability developed in Brazil. The Brazilian Air Force sponsored the EMB-312 project at the end of 1978. Design and development work began in 1979 on a low-cost, relatively simple new basic trainer with innovative features which eventually became the international standard for basic training aircraft. The prototype first flew in 1980, and initial production units were delivered in 1983.

Production was initially supported by a local order for 118 aircraft, with options for an additional 50 units in October 1980. It was later matched by an Egyptian licence-produced purchase in 1993 and subsequently by an improved variant known as the Short Tucano, which was licence-produced in the United Kingdom. The Tucano made inroads into the military trainer arena and became one of Embraer's first international marketing successes. It is hoped the above aeroplane will give a fly past.

Your Village Needs You!!

Could you spare a few hours a month on a voluntary basis to help out others in our village?
If so, we could really do with your help!

Holme Helpers (HH) is a Holme-Upon-Spalding-Moor village volunteer group and the legacy from the COVID-19 group which was established to deal with the lockdown in March 2020 due to the Coronavirus. As of April 2021, HH has taken over completely and the COVID-19 group no longer exists. However, many of the personnel are the same people and many residents will not notice a difference.

The purpose of HH was to establish a volunteer group for the long term, not just whilst we all endure the ramifications of the COVID-19 virus. Its aims are:

- To deliver services that promote the reduction of isolation and loneliness to enable people to feel safe and supported in the Parish of Holme-Upon-Spalding-Moor
- To develop community events together
- To engage people of all ages in volunteering.

In practical terms, for the foreseeable future this will mean the following services:

- Going shopping for residents and delivering it to their doors
- Collecting and delivering prescriptions
- Providing the Holme-Upon-Spalding-Moor People's Pantry delivery service.

Looking further forward we will work together to agree upon clearly defined projects that will benefit the community as a whole and we are open to suggestions / ideas, although in the current circumstances it may only be possible to do these later in 2021 or into 2022.

So where can YOU help?

We currently have needs in the following areas:

- On the Committee, as a general member, or as Secretary
- As a volunteer packing and delivering food and essential supplies for HH Pantry

The HH Committee

The Committee is made up of a number of people with the following occupying the Officers' roles for the current year (commencing 1 April 2021):

- Chair – Zaila Rhodes
- Treasurer – Jim Davie
- Secretary – Position vacant

The rest of the Committee comprises up to six other people, although more can be co-opted for specific projects. None of the Committee receives any financial reward or expenses for their work. We meet approximately four times a year with meetings lasting about two hours.

The position of Secretary is responsible for issuing the agenda and any supporting paperwork (online) to the other Committee Members for the upcoming meeting and for taking the minutes at that meeting.

HH Volunteers

Being a volunteer is open to anyone who:

- is aged over 16 years old (or younger if supervised by an adult); and
- lives in Holme-Upon-Spalding-Moor or the surrounding area; and
- supports the aims of HH.

The HH Pantry is a food bank working for the residents of the Parish of Holme-Upon-Spalding-Moor. It is a confidential, non-judgemental service, supplying food and groceries every week, with deliveries taking place on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Residents can ask for the same day every week or just ask for help on an irregular basis, whichever suits them. It is enormously grateful to the generous donations from local people.

If you would be interested in finding out more about joining HH in any of the above capacities, please call the HH number, 07395 935907 or email Jim Davie at james_r_davie@hotmail.co.uk.

Tai Chi – Village Hall

Evening Session - Wednesday 7pm to 8pm

Morning Session - Friday 10.30am to 11.30am

Please email Howard at howard@howardgibbon.co.uk before you attend to make sure there is a place for you.

Howard was born in Hull in 1946 and began training under Chee Soo in 1973. He has been an instructor of Tai Chi Chuan and Feng Shou Kung Fu since 1976 and is the holder of the 6th Tengchi Master Grade. He lives with his wife, artist Gisela, in Holme on Spalding Moor, East Yorkshire

Howard's early fascination for these arts soon grew into a life-time vocation, realising that they went beyond a purely physical discipline, but was also a tool for self-development, spiritual growth, and a way of helping himself and others to achieve holistic health and well-being.

Howard Gibbon - HowardGibbon.com

For more information about Tai Chi continue to the following page.

The potential benefits of learning Tai Chi are enormous and varied:-

If you suffer from tension and stress, you will find that, with practice, Tai Chi will help you to learn to relax.

If you suffer from ill health, you will find that the practice of Tai Chi will help you improve your general health and well-being, increase your energy; tone your muscles; stretch your body; improve your posture and balance; improve your immune system and circulation; improve your strength and flexibility. We could go on and on...

And if you are perfectly healthy and happy, you will find that Tai Chi is a beautiful, life-affirming thing to do.

UPDATE – THE METHODIST CHURCH SERVICES WILL BE HELD ON SUNDAY 5TH SEPTEMBER AT 9-30AM AND THEN FORTNIGHTLY FOR THE FORESEEABLE FUTURE.

W.I. UPDATE

At last we were able to meet again on the 4th of August in the village hall newly redecorated Community Room and very smart it is too. There is a hand sanitizer in the foyer. Members wore masks upon entry until seated at tables of six, socially distanced, of course.

Our speaker was hilarious telling us all about 'Jim Turner, 1940s Grocer'. He even has a Facebook page. If you are on Facebook, look him up for an entertaining insight into the life of this character and his family and friends.

We were served at our tables with tea, coffee and delicious home baking provided by two of our committee members.

We now look forward to our September meeting which will have taken place on the 1st where our speaker will have told us about how to help care for and protect our precious hedgehogs.

On the 6th of October our speakers are Claire and Bertie from Pocklington based Butterflies Chocolates. If you have not tasted this amazing chocolate before, do join us for this not to be missed taster evening - a chocoholics heaven! And if you like it, you will be able buy some to take away with you.

All meetings start at 7.30pm on the first Wednesday of each month in the Community Room of the village hall.

We also have a coffee club whereby members meet on the second Tuesday of each month on the village hall car park at 10am for a trip out to various garden centres for coffee, a bun, and a look around. No need to be a car owner, there are plenty of lifts going. So 14th September and 12th October are the next two.

OPCC Privacy Notice

A MESSAGE FROM DEBBIE FAGAN

Good afternoon all,

It is with regret that I now spend my last couple of weeks with the OPCC off sick but these things are never easy, especially having gone from receiving awards for my work in March to redundancy notice in June! My last official working day with the PCC's Office is on Monday 23rd August having been made redundant along with the other three Engagement Officers and a Senior Policy Officer. You will have received the official statement I circulated previously in July.

Needless to say I have thoroughly enjoyed my 4 and a bit years and I would like to thank you all for your help, support and engagement over that time. We have achieved a lot for communities across the various strands of work not least opening up communication networks across the whole of the East Riding and I know that will continue. In the meantime, I leave Engage ER in the safe hands of Devan Witter (ERVAS) along with the ER Fraud Forum (devan@ervas.org.uk) and long may they continue. Devan also delivers a wide range of fraud prevention activities so please do contact him or check out the ERVAS website.

Any future OPCC enquiries or correspondence should go to pcc@humberside.pnn.police.uk.

Should anyone wish to get in touch with me after I leave, please don't hesitate, you can do so on my personal email at Debbie.fagan@btinternet.com and I'll do all I can to help.

Western Wolds Men in Sheds - The Shed is open!

It is great to see friends and acquaintances after the lockdown. We have welcomed half a dozen new members and it is so nice to hear other people's opinions and views whilst making and repairing items or just drinking tea.

New members and visitors have expressed their difficulty finding the Shed, so as a reminder we are based on Oakes Farm, Bulmer Lane, HOSM. YO43 4HE at the end of Baileywood lane turn left at the junction and Oakes Farm is the first turning on the right with a small sign for Men in Sheds.

We are continuing buying tools and donations of tools and materials are very welcome. The focus is on model making as a future area for members to explore. The metalworking shop is a great success and is constantly occupied by members who want to have a go at making planters and baskets out of steel. Riveting and welding is a rare skill that some members are tackling for the first time.

Western Wolds Men in Sheds had a stall at Pocklington end of lockdown celebration fair. It gave our some of our members a chance to show what we make and have a good chat at the same time.

We are investigating obtaining, making and supplying replacement notice boards for the Holme upon Spalding Moor Parish Council following a visit to our shed by the Clerk to the Parish Council and the Editor of Grapevine. They were surprised at our workshops space and equipment and I am sure will spread the word that new members are always welcome to our totally independent shed.

Men should not be lonely or isolated and our kettle is on and you can drop in for a cuppa and a chat on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday between 10.00 am and 3.00 pm. Men in Sheds are a charity and new ones are opening all over the country come and see for yourselves.

HELP US TO CELEBRATE THE QUEEN'S PLATINUM JUBILEE IN STYLE

In 2022, Her Majesty, The Queen will become the first British Monarch to celebrate a Platinum Jubilee, seventy years of service, having acceded to the throne on 6th February 1952 when Her Majesty was 25 years old.

Throughout the year, Her Majesty and members of the Royal Family will travel around the country to undertake a variety of engagements to mark this historic occasion culminating with the focal point of the Platinum Jubilee Weekend in June.

An extended bank holiday, from Thursday 2nd to Sunday 5th June, will provide an opportunity for communities and people throughout the United Kingdom to come together to celebrate the historic milestone. The four days of celebrations will include public events and community activities, as well as national moments of reflection on The Queen's 70 years of service.

Holme on Spalding Moor would like to celebrate this momentous occasion and therefore - We are looking for ideas to help celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee next June 2022 in Holme on Spalding Moor. If anyone has a great idea for something special to add to the weekend's programme then please contact Helen Williamson (helenwilliamson16@hotmail.co.uk) and it will be discussed at the next Parish Council committee meeting on Wednesday 15th September.

If anyone would like to join this committee then we are looking for more members to help with organising this very special event. Thank you.

HER MAJESTY'S PLATINUM JUBILEE 2022 – TREE PLANTING

Greener Pocklington is a community project formed to help combat the climate crisis and habitat loss through active projects in and around Pocklington area. The project is linking with local villages and towns to become involved with the Queens Green Canopy, a national tree planting initiative created to mark Her Majesty's Platinum Jubilee in 2022.

Recently Holme and Spalding Moor councillors, local people and Greener Pocklington members had a walk-through in the village to consider suitable sites for tree planting to mark the 'Treebilee'. Updates will follow via the Parish Council in the near future.

ADVICE FROM HUMBERSIDE POLICE

Crime Reduction Advice

Online Fraud

Criminals commit online fraud in a variety of ways - online banking and shopping, auction websites and online identity theft are just a few examples.

The ease, speed and convenience of online transactions can sometimes lead consumers to exercise less caution than they would when dealing with someone face-to-face.

Action Fraud provides useful advice on avoiding becoming a victim of online fraud or cybercrime. You can view their tips on their website.

- Online Shopping

When shopping online, make sure the retailer is reputable; research them and make sure they have an address and phone number.

- Look out for secure "https" links in the address of the website to ensure the site is secure in its payment/form-handling methods.
- Paying online by credit card can offer greater protection than other payment types.
- Try to use different passwords for different websites.
- Fake scam versions of corporate sites may be set up that look almost identical to the original site - yet are completely fake. Always check the web address of the page and ensure it is the official website.

- Phishing, vishing and smishing

This relates to any website, online service, phone call or text message which poses as a company or brand you recognise, such as a bank.

Any contact like this is designed to convince you to hand over valuable personal details or your money, or to download a virus to infect your computer.

The three terms are all plays on the word 'fishing', in that the fraudsters fish for potential victims by sending emails (phishing), social media messages or text messages (smishing) or making phone calls with urgent messages (vishing) in the hope of persuading someone to visit a bogus website.

You can find out more information about how to recognise these types of fraud, and also ways in which you can protect yourself, by visiting the Action Fraud website.

- Holiday Fraud

While travel has been limited in recent months, fraudsters are still targeting people searching for their ideal getaway.

Fraudsters may use fake online adverts, bogus sales calls, emails and text messages offering cheap rates, or steal images of accommodation from other travel websites. They may offer the chance to go on a free holiday in return for watching a presentation, or they may ask for a holiday to be paid in cash or a bank transfer via MoneyWise or Western Union, for example - which can be difficult to trace and isn't refundable.

In some cases, fraudsters may completely end contact after receiving payment, when the victim discovers the holiday doesn't exist. Sometimes the victim may find out at the airport that they're not booked onto a flight or that their hotel has no record of a booking.

Follow these tips to help outsmart the scammers:

- Don't reply to unsolicited emails, texts, social media or calls with holiday offers. Links and attachments in emails may lead to malicious websites or download viruses.
- Book a holiday directly with an airline or hotel, or through a reputable agent. Check whether they're a member of the Association of British Travel Agents (ABTA).
- If you decide to deal directly with the property owner or a letting agent, ask those questions about the booking, room, location and area. Don't book on websites that don't have a padlock icon (https) in the address bar, and be extra cautious if you're asked to pay using bank transfer or cash; pay by credit or debit card if you can.

Look out for warning signs of holiday fraud:

- You're contacted out of the blue by a travel agent or company you've never spoken to before, offering a holiday at a very low price.
- The details, pictures or address of the property or hotel on offer look suspicious, or independent website reviews aren't favourable or don't exist.
- You're asked to pay using bank transfer or cash; pay by credit or debit card if you can for extra protection.

If you think you've been victim of fraud, report it to Action Fraud online or call 0300 123 2040

FLY TIPPING

Have you seen people dumping tonnes of rubbish or hazardous waste in the countryside? Doesn't seem like a big deal, right? Wrong. Large-scale dumping can destroy the rural environment, and is a huge cost to communities and can be incredibly dangerous, often resulting in deliberate fires.

Help keep the countryside safe.
